ALBUQUERQUE, N. M.

N. F. Alexander was in the city yesterday from the ranch. He says they had a nice rain in his locality Sunday.

George Hyde and John Kurn were in the city yesterday from Beenham, purchasing supplies for their ranches.

Ben Chilcote from the Otto Valley was in town Tuesday and says his crops are looking fine. Ben is one of the best farmers we have. He came from the corn belt in Illinois and his corn is always good.

Rev. Michel Dumarest, pastor of the Catholic church at Folsom, was in the city yesterday.

Len Slack was in town from the ranch yesterday.

Mrs. Paz Valverde returned Wednesday from Trinidad, where she has been for the past week.

Mrs. Annie Carter of Beenham, was here yesterday delivering some cattle to Dakin Bros. of Wichita, Kansas. They will be shipped from Texline today.

Ike Like, prominent stockman of Valley, N. M., was transacting business in the city yesterday and shaking hands with his many old friends. Ike does not come to town very often.

T. R. Stanley and A. G. Kenyon, photographer, of Raton motored over from Raton Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Templeton, Ernest Katz, and J. E. Maddy of Wichita Falls, Texas, were visitors in the city Tuesday of this week.

R. D. Bergin, a well-known cattleman from near the Rabbit Ears, was in town Monday looking after business matters.

The First National Bank was among the patriotic yesterday and presented everyone who visited the bank with a dainty flag. J. F. Barnhart also had "old Glory" draped over the door of his jewelry store.

Mrs. Henry Metcalf of Kenton, Oklahoma, underwent an operation at the Winchester hospital the latter part of last week. She is doing nicely and will soon be out again.

W. T. McConnell and E. I. Hoyle were visitors here from Oklahoma City Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Kaho went to Trinidad Sunday to attend the ball game and visit Mr. Kaho's mother.

The closing exercises of the Kelsey Institute, located at Amistad, N. M., were held at that place on June fifth sixth and seventh. Rev. Hinderlite of Tucumcari, lectured on "A Young Man's Vision" which was greatly enjoyed by the audience. This is the second year that the Kelsey Institute has been incorporated and it is no longer an experiment but a decided success. It is of great assistance to the young people of that section who have graduated from the eighth grade and it should receive the hearty support of every resident in that section of country which we believe it does. Rev. O. A. Smith is President of the Board of Directors and Mrs. Nelle Hauser, secretary.

E. C. Smith of Grandview made a business trip to the city Monday of this week.

Nin Halcomb, son of Mrs. C. W. B. Bryan, was in the city Saturday on business.

C. L. White of Texhoma was in the city Monday of this week looking after business matters.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Carl Dunn is entertaining the Auction Bridge this afternoon.

The Baptist Ladies Aid will meet with Mrs. John Hill at the Isaacs ranch.

Messrs. Owens and Leonard Herzstein and Miss Wilma Hardin assisted Miss Sadie Herzstein in the celebration of her natal day Sunday.

The Order of the Eastern Star met Tuesday evening and initiated into the mysteries of the organization, Mrs. Herbert Herzstein. A jolly crowd was present and after the "goat" had been handled most successfully by this courageous woman a luncheon was spread and every one refreshed themselves. Mrs. Alexander and Mrs. Frank Hamm were visitors.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Q. Palmer entertained the Evening Five Hundred Club Thursday evening of last week and all the members were present. An elaborate luncheon was served at 7:30 after which the guests gathered round the card tables and the fun began. Mrs. Simon Herzstein and Dr. Winchester were the fortunate possessors of the "High Score." Those present were Mesdames Simon Herzstein, Frank Barnhart, Eklund, Granville, Snyder, Easterwood, Winchester, Clark, and Miss Inez Eklund, and Messrs. Simon Herzstein, Eklund, Granville, Snyder, Easterwood, Clark and Dr. Winchester.

Mrs. Dudley Snyder entertained delightfully Saturday afternoon of last week in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. Tom Snyder, who was visiting here from Marfa, Texas. A dainty luncheon was served after the games were played and the table was very pretty with its huge centerpiece of carnations and roses and its trailing streamers of smilax. Those present were Mesdames Kingdom, Hammond, Law, Hahn, Woodward, Easterwood, Claude Barnhart, Johnson, Palmer, Tom Snyder, Granville and Morris Herzstein.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Eklund entertained at dinner Friday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Snyder, of Marfa, Texas. Covers were laid for twenty guests and the long table was perfectly appointed. Smilax ran from plate to plate and white and red rose buds were strewn over the cloth. A large cut glass vase of carnations formed the centerpiece. The five course dinner was a very elaborate one. Five Hundred was the finishing touch to a most enjoyable evening. The guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Tom Snyder, Dudley Snyder, H. J. Hammond, Frank Barnhart, Claude Barnhart, Granville, Easterwood, Palmer, Clark, Mrs. J. M. Winchester and Herbert Hammond Jr.

Picnic Crowd Marooned

The Evening Auction Club held a picnic on the Perico Sunday, and a "picnic" indeed they had. Early in the wee sma' hours of the morning you could hear Morris Johnson, Claude Barnhart, etc., arranging the details of the fish-hooks, bait, luncheon, the "honkers" on the cars, the spark plugs and other minor accessories. By eight o'clock all were ready to leave the city and they departed. On arriving at the Perico, they unpacked their belongings and proceeded to enjoy themselves. They fished, swam, waded, ate and then fished some more. At five o'clock when the storm clouds began to gather some of the timorous ladies of the party suggested that they start but fishing was too good and they were having too much fun so it was decided to stay and cook supper. The idea that it COULD rain being scouted with laughter.

But the heaven opened and the rain and hail descended, not gently, but in torrents. A mad rush for the autos and the crowd started home. They arrived at the crossing arroyo and found it too high to cross. They waited for it to run down and finally made it. About ten o'clock they were able to come in to town wet, tired and hungry, but still happy. They are planning another one soon. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. John Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Harvey, Mr. and Mrs. Claude Barnhart, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Holdsworth, Mr. and Mrs. M. C. Johnson, Mrs. H. Hahn, Miss Clio Toombs, Mrs. J. Lancaster, of Guymon, Okla., and her son Master Robert. The Club re-organized to meet again in September, the first meeting being with Mr. and Mrs. Claude Barnhart.

The Methodist Aid Society met yesterday afternoon with Mrs. Laura Thompson. About sixteen members were present and Mrs. Thompson served a very dainty luncheon about four o'clock. The Aid agreed to disband for the summer months, but will resume their meetings in September.

W. P. Graham and George Dakin, of Wichita, Kansas, made a cattle-buying trip to the southern part of the county Tuesday. Quite a bit of that section of the country has had no rain to speak of yet and while crops are not particularly suffering, still a good soaking rain is needed.

"Cured"

Mrs. Jay McGee, of Stephenville, Texas, writes: "For nine (9) years, I suffered with womanly trouble. I had terrible headaches, and pains in my back, etc. It seemed as if I would die, I suffered so. At last, I decided to try Cardui, the woman's tonic, and it helped me right away. The full treatment not only helped me, but it cured me."
